Important notice concerning disclosure

Your insurance is based upon the information you provide to us, which is then passed on to the insurance company. You must ensure that all such information is complete and accurate and that any facts which may influence the Insurer's decision to accept the policy and/or what terms are applied must be disclosed. It is your duty to disclose all material facts. A material fact is one that would influence the decision of the Insurer to cover you (for example something that would impact on your eligibility for insurance cover). If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, please disclose it.

Failure to disclose material information may invalidate your insurance and could mean that part of, or all, a claim may not be paid.

I agree that this declaration, together with any other information supplied by me, shall form the basis of any contract of insurance effected on the basis of the information I have provided. I undertake to notify PACEY of any material change in circumstances or alteration to facts I have disclosed occurring before my policy is activated.
